

Official Facebook Pages Launched

Bringing information for safe and enjoyable living one step closer to Tottori's foreign residents

This November TPIEF opened its official Facebook pages, Tottori niko-niko, to help make life more enjoyable for Tottori's foreign residents. Four pages have been created to channel the overflow of information in the world into specific topics according to language in an easily understandable way. Where topics are shared, original posts are made for each region and language. Take a look, and share it with your friends!
