

The Tottori Administrative Scrivener Association will hold a “Consultation Meeting for Foreign Residents”.

If you are living in Japan and have questions, worries, or problems about residence status, work, marriage, or daily life, administrative scriveners (legal specialists) can talk with you and give advice.

The consultation will be in Japanese.

However, we will use translation apps, so please do not worry about language.

You can come on the day without a reservation.

But if you make a reservation in advance, you can talk without waiting.
